Straight Talk About Planning for the Future

– Planning –

You may think: "I'm too busy," or "It would never happen to me," or "Someone will take care of all that for me." The reality is none of know what tomorrow will bring. To best prepare for the future, we should all properly plan to set ourselves and our family up for success. Everyone needs a plan. What is yours? Where do you begin? The Air Force provides you a tool, free of charge, to help you create and manage a plan to build your future. The MyAirForceBenefit calculator can help you and your family plan and make decisions, no matter what the future may hold

– Separating –

Learn how to take advantage of those hard-earned years in uniform. The MyAirForceBenefits Retirement Calculator will show you what you would need to qualify for as you transition and prepare for life after the military . The years you served on active duty would be converted to the point system used to calculate a reserve/guard retirement. A few years serving as reserve or guard member could pay huge dividends. Compare the advantages of continuing to serve for you and your family.

- Retirement -

Planning is crucial when you are ready to make the move to retirement. MyAirForceBenefits can help you and your family plan for the future. You can estimate your retirement income, decide where to retire, and understand what benefits you and your family will be eligible to receive.

- Estate Planning -

What can your family expect should you die? Do you know what your family is eligible to receive? Did you know your spouse will have to make a lifelong financial decision upon your death?

Did you know that your survivor's monthly income will be reduced by as much as 2/3 when your youngest child turns 18? How will your survivor manage his or her benefits and entitlements? How will they protect and invest those benefits? Should your survivor pay off debt, buy or sell a home, pay off college loans? MyAirForceBenefits can help guide you and your family on how to plan and manage survivor benefits.
