MEMORANDUM FOR WPAFB 2A, 2B, 2C, 2D, 2E, 2F, 2G

FROM: 88FSS/CL

SUBJECT: Pitsenbarger Dining Facility Dress Code

1. In addition to the standards listed in AFI 36-2903 Dress and Personal Appearance of the Air Force Personnel, the following guidelines apply to the Pitsenbarger Dining Hall. These additional standards will ensure patrons enjoy their meals in a safe, sanitary and appropriate environment. The following styles of dress and personal grooming are prohibited:

- a. Clothing which is lewd, obscene, or has profane words/drawings, or articles of clothing which might tend to create disorder or reflect support of an organization or individual who advocates the overthrow of the US Government is prohibited.
- b. Clothing which was specifically designed as undergarments worn on the outside of your clothes or exposes undergarments is prohibited.
- c. Dress or grooming which may cause sanitation problems due to lack of cleanliness (sweaty PT gear) is prohibited.
- d. Wear of tank tops, bathing suits, halter tops, pajamas, hair curlers and bare feet are not allowed.
- e. Hats (military or civilian) will be removed upon entry into Pitsenbarger Dining Facility. An exception is Security Forces members who are on duty and carrying a weapon are permitted to wear their berets.

2. Customers will be denied service if not in compliance with this policy.

3. For questions or concerns, please contact the Food Service Officer, Mrs. Brittany Ritter at (937) 257-3902

JAMES P. DAVERN, Maj, USAF
Deputy Commander, 88th Force Support Squadron
