What is Sponsorship?

Commercial Sponsorship provides your business with the opportunity to increase awareness of your product and services within the Wright-Patterson AFB community while enhancing the vital programs that contribute to the quality of life for Air Force members and their families.

GIFTS & DONATIONS

Gifts and donations are accepted and appreciated. However, they are separate from the Sponsorship program and recognition must be limited.

Sponsorship Options

DIRECT FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Cash to be used to offset the cost of events and programs.

IN-KIND PRODUCTS

Products or services to enhance events and programs, such as food and drinks, crafts, games, decorations, music, etc.

PRIZES

Merchandise, gift certificates and service-related prizes to be given away at an event.

PROGRAM SUPPORT

Uniforms, equipment, medals, trophies, etc. for various events and activities.

Become a Partner

Extend your reach and your company's relationship with Wright-Patterson AFB through corporate partnership. Sponsors interested in attending multiple base events and programs will receive additional benefits through the partnership tier levels.

Benefits include increased recognition, ad space in FSS media, and more opportunities to engage with the Wright-Patterson AFB community.

CREATE YOUR OWN EVENT

Platinum and Gold partners have the opportunity to work with the Force Support Squadron to create an event for Air Force members and their families. Venues include the Wright-Patt Club, Kittyhawk Lanes, and the Courses at Wright-Patterson.

GO BEYOND THE BUNDLE

Options to show your support in unique ways are only a conversation away. Opportunities include but are not limited to product exclusivity through the FSS, recognition on provided equipment, and logos on Varsity team uniforms. Contact the Sponsorship office to begin planning.
